WINTER SESSION

THE BASICS

Wintersession is a two-week experience in January for Princeton University community members to experiment and explore through unexpected, active, and intriguing and non-graded learning opportunities.

We seek to use the talents of our whole community: undergraduate students, graduate students, staff and faculty can participate as teachers, learners, or both!

- Wintersession 2022 runs from Monday January 10 through Sunday January 23
- Will be the first in-person University-wide Wintersession
- Wintersession is FREE to attend
- Housing and dining is free for all undergrad and grad students during WS

WHY WINTERSESSION?

- Answering students' calls for time on campus without grades or mandatory classes
- Exploration and learning with no stakes is amazing and important
- Opportunity to come together in cross-role, cross-disciplinary, cross-hierarchy way
- Surprising skills and knowledge on campus that people want to share
- Choose your own adventure: teach, learn, both or neither

WHAT SHOULD I EXPECT FROM WINTERSESSION 2022?

- Currently 350+ workshops, trips and events with more to come
 - 280 in-person sessions, 70 virtual sessions
- 30 local and regional trips
- Daytime and evening workshops (10am-11pm)
- Evening events every night throughout the entirety of Wintersession (e.g. major keynotes, art galleries, student v. staff/fac bball game etc.)

CAN I STILL SIGN UP?

- 1,600+ unique individuals signed up for 10,000+ spots in week 1 of registration
- ...and there is still more space for YOU!
 - 150+ workshops that still have grad/undergrad student spots
 - 100+ workshops that still have faculty/staff spots
- Many events will have at-the-door entry as well as RSVP in advance
